Reader's Opinions

The more I read the less I liked it. Her books are always a fairy tale but this was just too far out there. The more I knew about the lead male character the less I liked him as well. He was very controlling, jealous, used money to assert power, and...

Most of Shannon Guymon's books have very similar themes. Child of controlling, unloving, crooked rich parents, falls in love with child of humble, honest, sweet, affectionate, poor parents. First child ends up poor after being cut off from parents, second child becomes richer than first child's parents. All end up opposites of...
