Peek Inside the Book

Love is not a class that you take, its a genuine emotion that causes people to think about their significant other before making any decisions. Stephanie James, The Pieces //

I understood where her way of thinking came from. She had been the product of a wealthy and healthy two parent home. She had no clue how people from different walks of life struggled. In her eyes, the problems that...

Reader's Opinions

A good readThis was a nice read I'm happy that Keisha found her worth and Kai was the one that helped her see it. James was really a piece of work, just plain old selfish. Her mother and Kai father were something else too but I really did enjoy this story.

Thoroughly enjoyedI have to say that I thoroughly enjoyed this book! I wasn't expecting this book to make laugh, want to punch a hoe, and fall in love all over again. This is my first time reading something written by this author, and I must say, I'm glad that I did.
